No.GAD.883 dated 12-6-1926. 2/-1/file

In Government Order No.1467-8/CB.102-23 dated 31st October 1923, the pay that Major Foottit should get under Government has been precisely specified as Rs.1200+300 per mensem as provided in the note to Rule 114 (1) & (3) of the Fundamental Rules and the Subsidiary Rules of the Madras Government thereunder. If however, it is the intention of Government that he should be allowed 25% over and above the pay he would get in British India from time to time in addition to the House rent sanctioned to him then the State has to pay him Rs.915+300+25% thereon viz Rs.1518-12-0 in all per mensem minus the salary already drawn viz Rs.1500/- per mensem. Pay includes only staff pay and not marriage/other allowances (Vide Subsidiary Rule 21(b) (ii) under Rule 9 of the Fundamental Rules).

8) I do not think we need admit any portion of the claim preferred by Major Foottit. It consists of 3 parts:-

(i) Increase of pay @ Rs.15 per mensem as his pay was revised from Rs.900 to Rs.915.	25% excess for 14m.17days
(ii) Marriage allowance @ Rs.90 per mensem	Rs.	1,911-14
(iii) Syce and Forage allowance ...		12 70-12
Total		3,182-10

Item No.(iii) which is not part of pay proper is clearly inadmissible as no mention of any concession or allowance is made in the order of appointment (Flag O). In Fundamental Rules 114 note 1, it is stated that if the order sanctioning the transfer is silent as to any particular remuneration or concession, it must be assumed that the intention is,it will not be enjoyed. As regards the marriage allowance (11) which is claimed as part of ~~his~~ revised pay, the Comptroller Considers ~~points out~~ that it cannot be ~~considered as included in the~~ treated as pay proper. It is unnecessary to go into the question as to whether this allowance should be considered as part of pay or not. In regarding this and item (i) also it will be observed that the pay of an officer lent for service in an Indian State will be fixed by the authority sanctioning the transfer in consultation with the foreign employer. The pay thus fixed must be precisely specified in the order sanctioning the transfer and in this case, the pay of Major Foottit was specifically determined as Rs.1,200 plus 25% of it viz., Rs.300 or Rs.1,500 per mensem. It is not clear why this Government should bear any additional charge merely because of the revision of pay of this officer in British India with retrospective effect.

If we accept this claim we may have to pay in addition ~~to this~~, the leave and pension contribution based on the revised pay for which there is no justification.

(10) According to the Memorandum dated 1st October 1923, which placed Major Fottit's services at our disposal, we have to allow him the "pay equivalent to that which he would draw in British Service plus 25 per cent. thereon. allow what is strictly admissible according to the Government of India order dated 3rd May 1926. What is allowable according to this order is only

(1) addition to ~~rate of~~ pay of Rs 15;

(2) Marriage Allowance of Rs 30;

and (3) 25 per cent. of items (1) and (2).

One point, however, relating to this claim is not clear; i.e., whether the Marriage Allowance comes under the definition of 'Pay'. This is a point on which we may ask the Comptroller to obtain the opinion of the Military Accounts Officer to whose Audit Circle Major Foottit belongs.

11) The Government of India order dated 3rd May 1926 makes no allusion to Forage Allowance and Syces' Allowance and the claim to these two allowances is not, therefore, supported by any authority.

12) No claim on account of married rate of lodging allowance need be considered, as the officer appears to have been furnished with free quarters.

To No. Pol. 349 & 11/10/26

The Secretary to the Resident.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.7596 dated the 2nd September 1926 and in continuation of my letter No. Pol.312 dated the 27th Septr. 1926, in the matter of adjustment of Syce and Forage allowance claimed by Major Foottit, I am directed to invite kind reference to Memorandum No.893 (10-A) dated 1st October 1923 from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign and Political Deptt. placing the services of Major Foottit at the disposal of the Mysore Govt. and to state that according to the terms of employment contained therein, the Mysore Government have to allow Major Foottit "pay equivalent to that which he would draw in British service plus 25% thereon". In accordance with this understanding the Government have allowed Major Foottit the benefit of the increased rates of pay and of the marriage allowance sanctioned by the Govt. of India during his employment here, as the latter was understood to have been included in the term 'pay' under the revised rules of pay and allowance. (Vide letter No.Pol.162 dated 13.8.1926) It appears from your letter of the 2nd September 1926 under reply that Major Foottit requests that Syce and Forage allowance also may, as coming under the category of pay, be given to him. It has however been ascertained from the Controller of Military Accounts, Madras District, that Syce and Forage allowance is not included in the term 'pay'. Government consider that the payment of this to Major Foottit is, therefore not permissible under the terms of his employment here and regret that his request cannot be complied with.

I have, etc.,

Chief Secretary to Govt.
